

Tomato Rootstocks, September 2010-10-13

Emperador RZ (61-065 RZ):

Resembles Maxifort but gives more generative development of the scion. Same vigour as Maxifort. Can also be used in soil crops.

Vigour rating “4”

R: ToMV/Fol: 0,1/For/Va/Vd/Pl/Ma/Mi/Mj

Stallone RZ (61-067 RZ):

More generative acting on the scion than Emperador RZ. Use in small fruited specialties or with a vegetative scion. Not for use in soil crops.

Vigour rating “3.5”

R: ToMV/Fol;0,1/For/Va/Pl

Bruce RZ (61-068 RZ):

More vigorous than Emperador RZ. Possible use where vigour is most important. Not for use in soil crops.

Vigour rating “5”

R: ToMV/Fol;0,1/For/Va/Pl

61-074 RZ:

Rootstock for eggplant. More generative comparing to Emperador.

Trials in 2009 in Europe.

Vigour rating “3.5”

R: ToMV/Fol:0,1/For/Pl/Va/Mi/Mj/Ma

Montezuma RZ (61-069 RZ):

For the Mexican market soil crops, with “fusarium 3” resistance (Fol:0,1,2)

Vigour rating “4”

R: ToMV/Fol:0,1,2/For/Pl/Va/Mi
